

BROWN, ANDREW PETER

b. Carshalton, Surrey, England. [REDACTED]

ADDRESS:

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] England

EDUCATION:

B.A. (Hons.), Botany, St. Catherine's College, Oxford University, 1966-1969

Ph.D., Palynological Vegetation History of S.W. England, Cambridge University, 1969-1972

CAREER:

School teacher, Uppingham School, Rutland, England, 1972-1976

School teacher, Westminster School, London, 1976- (Head of Biology Department, 1981-)

MEDIUM:

Watercolor

GROUP EXHIBITION(S):

The Linnean Society of London, 1987

Torkington Gallery, Stamford, Lincolnshire, 1987

"Flora of the Brooks Range," Alaska, Royal Horticultural Society, London, 1991

"Plants from Crete," Royal Horticultural Society, London, 1992

"Some commonly cultivated monocotyledons," Royal Horticultural Society, London, 1993

"Compositae," Royal Horticultural Society, London, 1994

Chelsea Physic Garden, 1994

Kew Gardens Gallery, 1995-1996

ONE-PERSON EXHIBITION(S):

Carleton Gallery, Westminster School, 1980, 1983, 1985, 1988, 1990

"Plants of New England," Carleton Gallery, Westminster School, 1983

The Linnean Society of London, 1987

"New England Forest Plants," Carleton Gallery, Westminster School, 1988

"Spring Plants from Crete," Carleton Gallery, Westminster School, 1990

Footstool Gallery, St. John, Smith Square, London, 1993

Wolfsion College, Oxford, 1994

TWO-PERSON EXHIBITION(S):

Hunt Institute, Pittsburgh, 1995 (with John Wilkinson)

HONOR(S)/AWARD(S):

Silver-Gilt Medals, Royal Horticultural Society, London, 1991, "Flora of the Brooks Range," Alaska; 1992, "Plants from Crete"

Gold Medals, Royal Horticultural Society, London, 1993, "Some commonly cultivated monocotyledons"; 1994, "Compositae"

COMMISSIONS:

A number of private commissions have been undertaken

WORK REPRODUCED IN:

Flora of Oxfordshire. [In prep.].

9

Parrya nudicaulis ssp. septentrionalis 1985

Watercolor 42 x 29.5 cm.

Hunt Institute collection

Photo Credit

Portrait: C. R. Russell