

Moir, Mali

b. Thailand

Residence: Australia

Education:

Fine Art (Printmaking major), Prahran College, Victoria, 1979

Horticulture, Botanical Illustration, Victorian College of Agriculture and Horticulture, Burnley, 1986–1989

Career:

Botanical, scientific and natural-history artist

Botanical artist, National Herbarium of Victoria, 1993–

Membership:

Friends of the Royal Botanic Gardens Melbourne

Wildlife Art Society of Australasia

Media:

Watercolor, mixed media

Group Exhibition(s):

Centenary Art Exhibition, Victorian College of Agriculture and Horticulture, Burnley, 1991

Art of Botanical Illustration, Friends of the Royal Botanic Gardens Melbourne, 1996, 1998, 2000

25th Annual Exhibition, Wildlife Art Society of Australasia, 1998

Royal Horticultural Society Winter Exhibition, 2002

Honor(s)/Award(s):

Highly Commended Award, Wildlife Art Society of Australasia exhibition, 1998

Collections:

Numerous private and public collections

Commissions:

Numerous private and public commissions

Work Reproduced In:

Action Statements for the Department of Natural Resources and Environment, 1993– 1998.

Flora of Australia. 2002 [In press]. ABRS, Environment Australia. Vol. 44.

Flora of Victoria. 1994, 1996, 1999. National Herbarium of Victoria: Inkata Press. Vols.
2, 3, 4.

Home, R. W. and S. Maroske. 1997. Life and Letters of Ferdinand von Mueller.

Hurle, G. 1992. The Most Important Building in Town. Hill of Content.
Muelleria. 1994–1997.

Bibliography:

The art of detail. Spring/Summer 1996/97. Country Gardener.

64

Grevillea thyrsoides subsp. pustulata P. M. Olde and N. R. Marriott 2000

Watercolor 50 × 76.5 cm

Lent by the artist