Notes This seems to be the complete work in parts. It is introduced in vol. 7 by the Ed? of the Brit. Farmer's Mag. (signed Conductor) as follows: "We have much pleasure in laying before our readers a portion of a Catechism of Gardening... The Catechism has been prepared by a gentleman of undoubted ability, and will be continued in our succeeding numbers till complete, when it is purposed to publish the whole separately, at a cheap rate, in order to enable benevolent individuals to spread more widely the advantages it appears calculated to confer".
← I have found no trace of it ever having been published separately.
The author's name is not mentioned in any of the extracts. I presume that this was the complete work.
