

Author(s) ^f HOWISON, William_x

Title An account of several of the most important culinary vegetables of the interior of the Russian Empire; with remarks upon their cultivation, their application to the purposes of life, and the manner in which they are preserved during the severity of the winter in the northern parts of that country.

Abbreviated reference ^{44P 29B} Report. Arts, Manufactures Agric. Ser. 2, 38. (223): 44-62. 1821 [Dec. 1820]

- Notes Repr. Trans. (Mem?) Caledonian Hort Soc., n.v.n.d.
Vegetables listed with some description of each one and differences compared with any varieties grown in other European countries. Also gives locations and places of origin. Vegetables listed:
- 1) Russian cucumber. 2) Moscow early yellow turnip. 3) Narva yellow turnip.
 - 4) Variegated cabbage. 5) & 6) omitted. 7) & 8) Large round dark green water melon with red flesh and large spotted Russian water melon with yellow flesh
 - 9) & 10) Knoll, or bulbous rooted celery; Rothen or red celery.
 - 11) A peculiar species of mustard from Russian Tartary.
 - 12) omitted.
 - 13) A peculiar species of onion from Chinese Tartary.